

Do you have questions about employment laws and employment practices?

The MSEA and Sisk & Company are sponsoring a workshop where attendees will have the opportunity to hear a speaker from the State of Colorado, Civil Rights Division and one of the area's top employment law attorneys. All attendee will gain a better understanding of how to manage their business to best manage these complex situations.

This seminar will provide you with an overview of the Colorado and Federal anti-discrimination laws, ADA and Age Discrimination Laws. In addition, we will also cover wage and work rules/general human resource policies. During this seminar, the presenters will cover the rules and practices by reviewing case studies of real life situations that other employers have found themselves facing.

If you have wondered "What can I do about this employment situation?", you will want to attend this workshop. This workshop is open to all Sisk and Company clients or MSEA members.

This workshop will cover the following:

- Colorado Anti-discrimination laws
- American with Disabilities Act consideration
- Setting up personal policies
- Hiring and firing considerations
- Civil rights laws
- Age Discrimination in Employment
- Records that should be kept and why
